

The figure displays a 3x3 grid of 9 diagrams. Each diagram consists of a 2x2 arrangement of four arrows pointing towards the center. The arrows are labeled with mathematical symbols: $>$, $<$, \wedge , and \vee . The patterns vary across the grid, representing different states or configurations.