

The figure shows a 3x3 grid of 3x3 subgrids. Each subgrid contains arrows representing spin configurations. The arrows are arranged in a pattern that suggests a checkerboard-like arrangement of different spin states. The grid is labeled with 'a' and 'b' at the bottom.