

The figure displays a 3x3 grid of 9 diagrams. Each diagram consists of a 2x2 arrangement of four vertices, with lines connecting them horizontally, vertically, and diagonally. The vertices are labeled with symbols: >, <, ^, and v. The connections between vertices vary across the grid, representing different configurations of a system.