

Figure 1 displays a 3x3 grid of 9 diagrams, each representing a different spin configuration on a square lattice. The central square in each diagram has four arrows pointing towards its corners. The surrounding four squares have arrows pointing towards the central square's edges. The spin values (up/down) vary across the grid, representing different states of the system.