

The figure displays a 3x3 grid of 9 diagrams. Each diagram consists of a 2x2 arrangement of four nodes, with horizontal and vertical lines connecting them. At each node, there is a small arrow pointing towards the center of the 2x2 arrangement. The arrows are labeled with symbols: >, <, ^, and v. The symbols are arranged in a specific pattern across the grid, representing different states or configurations.